Baggie, darling,

Gave old sad sack a love you letter, I gave it
I doubt. We've had fun in gym class this year, and had fun in every other little things,
such as (cont.)

Well Sarah,
you are another jump ahead it would be long before you'd be out of H.S.

You are a cutie girl and I hope you have the best of luck always.
Chundie Land.

Sarah you really have a sweet family and I must say I don't think so too.
I hope you lots of luck in everything and look after old Charlie's good

Good little Sarah,
I love you and me best
I love you best in H.S.

Let's a' look, to a small cute girl. And to your sister too.
Bob Spring

Dear Sarah,
you are one of the best friends a boy ever had. I hope you will always be.
Forever H.

Dear Sarah,

well, I'll be up

there next year.
I'll be to you in your last very next day, year. You are the best girl I've ever met here out.

Love,

Betty Sue Dunn

I think you have cute legs and you and Lawrence will get married I'm sure.
I'll see you next year and then then dance the joint.

It has been fun kidding you this year! Hope you and Charles, not have you changed again, and getting along fine. Be good this summer and don't study to hard next fall. Really had a wonderful time at your dance this year.
You are a swell girl and plenty fun for anyone.

Through the medium of a comparison between our federal government and various sections of our school, the staff of THE PEANUT has endeavored to show each part of Suffolk High School in the proper light of its importance. By showing the similarity between a section of our school and a factor in our government each group or individual is given due recognition for the part it plays in leading the students and in making good future citizens.

Many of the outstanding men of our nation point to their school days as the ones in which they received the training which they are now using to such great advantage. To present a clear picture of this year at Suffolk High School with its many outstanding and memorable events so that in later years we may recall them is the aim of this annual of '45.

DEDICATION

MISS EMILY PITTMAN

A friendly smile, a gay laugh, and a heart abounding with love for everyone are only a few of her characteristics which make her dear to every student in Suffolk High.

Under her able leadership our Girls' Basketball Teams have won the honor of being district champions for the past ten years. Not only does she coach the girls' athletic teams, but she carries on her shoulders the task of making each student a healthy person through good exercise. Her gym classes, in addition to exercising our bodies, strengthen our character by stressing the importance of good sportsmanship, one of the "musts" for a good citizen. Perhaps good sportsmanship would not reign so supremely if she were not the perfect example of it.

Not often do we meet a person so adored and respected by all. Thus THE PEANUT of '45 feels honored to have been dedicated to Miss Emily Pittman, our exceptional coach and faithful friend.

ADMINISTRATION

There are certain individuals in our school who help us over many of the rough and narrow places on the long road to learning with their cheerfulness and understanding. The positions held by them closely resemble the offices held by the highest officials of our federal government.

These are the ones who lead us and spur us on to unexpected heights. To them is intrusted the burden of enforcing the laws of the school, making them, and watching over us with kindly eyes to prevent any misdeeds.

These bodies and individuals are our superintendent, school board, principal, faculty, Student Senate, the Ways and Means Committee, and its various committees. To introduce our administrative forces is the purpose of this section.

CHIEF JUSTICE SUPERINTENDENT

MR. STANLEY T. GODBEY

The highest position in our school is the superintendent's, held by Mr. Stanley T. Godbey. This position closely resembles the office of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Just as the Chief Justice presides over the Supreme Court, so the superintendent leads the school board.

Mr. Godbey not only supervises this school, but also all of the schools in Suffolk. He is highly respected by all, always eager to help and friendly to all the students.

SUPREME COURT SCHOOL BOARD

The Board, made up of influential citizens of Suffolk, is intrusted with the management of the educational system of the city. By reports from the superintendent they are kept in close contact with all the affairs of the schools. Any important change desired by the schools must have the permission of this board. Through the School Board and Mr. Godbey many improvements are gained for the students.

PRESIDENT PRINCIPAL

Just as the office of the President is the highest executive position in our government, the principal holds this position in our school. Our principal, Mr. William R. Savage, Jr., with a manner liked by all, executes the rules of our school and reprimands the offenders.

By all he is regarded with respectful admiration as the man to whom any problem encountered may be taken with the satisfaction of knowing that he is always ready to aid the students. Every effort has been made by him to make our Alma Mater one of the finest. We take off our hats to one who has been more than a principal; more than a guide in time of need; to one who has been a true and earnest friend to all.

MR. WILLIAM R. SAVAGE, JR.

CABINET FACULTY

The Cabinet in our government is made up of persons who advise our President and take a share of his responsibility on their shoulders. Each member is responsible to the President for his section of the work. In the same way the faculty of our school advises the principal, and each teacher carries his portion of leading us on along the road to knowledge. They are always ready to give advice to any pupil; they are willing to assist in any extra-curricular activity; they are working for a better post-war world by conveying to us, the future citizens, the high ideals of a democratic nation.

In the English Department are Mrs. Willard Lipscomb, Miss Selma Piland, Miss Reed West, Miss Virginia Brinkley, Miss Mary St. Clair Bugg, Miss Marguerite Bell, Miss Frances Armistead, and Miss Elizabeth Marable.

In the Department of Social Studies are Miss Gladys Yates, Miss Thelma Pruden, and Mr. Charles Cockrell.

Miss Brinkley, teaching Latin, Miss Piland, French, and Miss Thelma Pruden, Spanish, make up the Foreign Languages Department.

Making up the Department of Science are Mr. Wilbert Crocker, teaching chemistry, physics, and pre-flight; Miss Anna Koontz, general science and biology; Mr. Cockrell, general science; and Miss Marable, home economics.

In our Commercial Department, which includes typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, and business English, are Miss Mamie Basler and Miss Charlotte Avery.

In the Department of Physical Education are Miss Emily Pittman, who also teaches first aid, Miss Bell, Mr. Cockrell, and Mr. Lewis White.

Making up the Industrial Arts Department is Mr. E. L. Applegate.

In the Music Department is Miss Irene Alderman.

Miss Louise Sutherland, with Mrs. Cliff Lewis as assistant, makes up the Library Department.

Making up the Mathematics Department, which includes general math, algebra, business math, geometry, and trigonometry, are Miss Lucy Britt, Miss Jane Hardee, Miss Tapelle Pruden, and Miss Mildred Johnson.

The final department is made up of our two secretaries. Miss Johnson, in addition to teaching, acts as secretary to Mr. Savage; Miss Essie Hurff, to Mr. Godbey.

The upper house of legislature in our government is the Senate, made up of representatives of the states. With similar purpose and composition the Student Senate of our school closely resembles this former body.

The Student Senate of Suffolk High School is a democratic, law-making body. It is run on the principles of self-government for the students. This body meets regularly to conduct affairs of the school.

In an election by all the students at the beginning of the year, Jimmie Godwin was elected president and Bobby Saunders, vice-president. Jackie Smith was chosen secretary.

The Student Senate is made up of representatives elected by their homerooms, the Ways and Means Committee chairmen, and honorary members attending because of their other important activities.

The main undertaking of the Senate is to sponsor projects, to charter clubs, and to make laws.

SENATE CHAIRMEN WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE

Baines, Bell
Grant, Smith

In the Senate are many committees which lessen and simplify its work. A meeting of its chairmen would be identical to the Ways and Means Committee of our Student Senate.

This group is the executive body of the school which plans the work of the Student Senate and brings recommendations to that body. Its membership consists of the president, vice-president, and secretary of the Student Senate, and Dotsy Thedieck, its chairman, with the chairmen of these various committees: Social Affairs, Assembly, Clubs, Finance, Athletic, Bonds and Stamps, Publicity, Building and Grounds, and War Activities.

The chairmen of the committees are appointed by the president of the Student Senate, and each chairman selects several students to work with him.

Twice a month on the second and fourth Mondays, this committee meets to discuss important school government affairs.

Though the members of the Ways and Means are honorary members of the Student Senate, it is they who have the headaches from planning for that body.

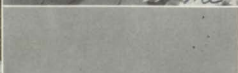

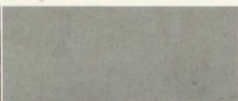

SENATE COMMITTEES . . . WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEES

Each member of the Ways and Means Committee presides over a committee of our school which undertakes some necessary task over which the Student Senate has legislation. These correspond to the committees of the Senate in that they greatly lessen its task of governing the school.

Each committee has a special task to do. The Social Affairs Committee, headed by Elizabeth Rawls and Ray Waterfield, schedules school dances and social functions. Under the leadership of Nancy Rawls, the Assembly Committee plans all the assemblies. The Clubs Committee in charge of Annette Jones, requires that all clubs have definite plans and actions. A budget for the school was drawn up by the Finance Committee with Jerry Jaffe as chairman. The Athletic Committee, led by Jane Grant and Bob Brothers sponsored the intra-mural games of the school and made gym classes more attractive.

The sale of war bonds and stamps was kept continuously high by the Bonds and Stamps Committee with Jack Bell, Jimmie Baines, and Forrest Mallette as chairmen. The school is publicized in the local papers by the Publicity Committee, led by Margaret Hines. The Building and Grounds Committee, directed by G. S. Hobbs, keeps the school building and grounds neat and clean. Peanut Pickers are sent to our alumni in the armed forces by the War Activities Committee, headed by Sue Hines and Sam Odom.

First Row: Social Affairs Committee; Assembly Committee. Second Row: Clubs Committee; Finance Committee. Third Row: Athletic Committee; Bonds and Stamps Committee. Fourth Row: Publicity Committee; Buildings and Grounds Committee. Fifth Row: War Activities Committee.

CLASSES

The book of law is a symbol of the legislative bodies of the government. The classes of our school represent the lower house, or the House of Representatives, as the Student Senate represents the upper house. As the lower house differs from the upper, so the classes differ from the Student Senate in that they are a larger body and a truer representation of the people.

To the Seniors, being the representatives with the longest term of service, falls the majority of the students' task of self-government and the other activities. The Juniors, next in line to seniority, take part to a lesser degree in these affairs and are busy in last minute preparations for their big year. The majority of the activities and athletics of the school are filled with Seniors and Juniors. The Sophomores, Freshmen, and Junior Highs are being prepared for the time when the responsibility will be theirs.

Since every year one class graduates from school and another enters, each of the never ending line of classes mounts the ladder and gains the top rung of seniority as the time moves on.

In the beginning of the year the Senior Class of '45 elected Jerry Jaffe as its president, Jimmie Godwin as vice-president, Dotsy Thedieck, secretary, and Elizabeth Rawls, treasurer.

To the sponsors of the class the Seniors owe a debt of gratitude of such magnitude that it can never be repaid. All we can do is thank them for their kindness, understanding, patience, and much needed guidance. We give three deafening cheers to Mrs. Willard Lipscomb and Miss Virginia Brinkley.

ACTIVITIES

An important division of our government is the group of commissions, bureaus, divisions, and publications, many of which are called by the first letters of their title and, therefore, make up a mass of alphabetical organizations. These are in many ways similar to our clubs and publications.

Each of these governmental groups was organized to do a certain job which was necessary for the proper functioning of our government. Likewise our clubs were organized with some definite purpose in mind which would help to create a well-rounded character in each student.

Not all of these clubs correspond to a single bureau in particular, but the two groups as a whole are similar in that they have definite and necessary tasks to do toward the accomplishment of the ultimate end. However, the two publications in our school, THE PEANUT PICKER, our newspaper, and THE PEANUT, our yearbook, correspond to The Congressional Record and The Congressional Directory. Our Junior Red Cross is closely similar to The Red Cross and is connected with it.

This section, presenting these student organizations, clearly shows their purposes and how they aid in making good future citizens.

The Congressional Directory is the annual publication of Congress. THE PEANUT is the yearbook of Suffolk High. In striving to attain their goal, a good yearbook, the individuals on the staff have the opportunity to test their ability in the journalistic field. Soon after school started, our editor-in-chief, Anne Pierce, began getting together the workers. Nancy Alberts and Betty Dixon were chosen as assistant editors. After a theme had been decided upon, the linking together of the annual and its theme caused much guarded whispering among the privileged few who had helped plan the yearbook. Then on that memorable day in October all clubs and organizations assembled in the beauty spots of Suffolk High School and had their pictures taken. We can still hear Mr. Hamblin saying to each succeeding group, "This is the best picture I've taken today." After the "dummy" was finished, work on the articles began. The art work was drawn by Bill Jennings, Jackie Smith, and Margie Cooley. This involved hard labor and many headaches for the staff.

It is the sole aim of the annual workers to produce a yearbook depicting the happy scenes in Suffolk High. The staff hopes that you will believe this aim attained and always cherish THE PEANUT of '45.

Another publication of Suffolk High is the Peanut Picker, the weekly newspaper. This paper closely resembles the Congressional Record, the weekly newspaper of Congress. The Peanut Picker presents another opportunity for the students to enter journalism.

With each edition, the staff of the Peanut Picker keeps in mind the three main objectives—to write to the best of one's ability, to get articles in on time, and to attend all staff meetings. Our capable editor-in-chief, Margaret Hines, is often seen running around collecting articles and assembling the copy on paper. The competent and efficient workers, making up the editorial staff who aid her are Betty Anne Harrell, heads editor; Sue Hines, news editor; Annette Jones, feature editor; James Kirkpatrick, sports editor; and Jack Bell, columnist.

The other important section of the workers is the business staff, expertly led by Sylvia Schein, the business manager. She is assisted by Nancy Rawls, exchange editor; Jacquelin Burton, circulation manager; and Johanna Shallcross, head typist. The task of this group is to make the paper self-supporting, of which securing ads and subscriptions for the paper constitutes the majority of the work.

Again the paper is sponsored expertly by Miss Mamie Basler. Tuesday is the best day of the week because of the arrival of the Peanut Picker at that time.

Music is the language of the soul, and through our Glee Clubs the boys and girls of Suffolk High School are given an opportunity to study this wonderful art and learn some of the choral work of the great masters.

Every Tuesday and Friday during third period strains of beautiful songs are heard coming from the Girls' Glee Club practices. They learn many songs written for three parts; also they do a capella singing. In the Girls' Glee Club the officers are as follows: Maurine Synan, president and accompanist for both clubs; Violet Holland, vice-president; and Emma Carr, secretary and treasurer.

The Boys' Glee Club elected Morrison Smither as president, Lewis Knowles as vice-president, and Horace Pierce as secretary and treasurer. Many are the struggles trying to get every little phase of the music just right.

This year, as last, the Glee Clubs have been under the direction of Miss Irene Alderman, a teacher who is well-trained in music and seems to have unlimited resources. Even though situations often come up that would try anyone's patience, she persistently remains with us, and everything finally works out.

The mixed clubs began the year's program by appearing at the A.P.T.P. and later taking part in several broadcasts during Educational Week. As usual in December the Glee Clubs presented a Christmas program as an assembly and that night as entertainment for the A.P.T.P. There were several programs broadcast over the local radio station, and groups from the clubs sang before some of the civic organizations of the city. At Easter another assembly program was given, and then work was begun for the graduation music.

The white sweaters with the new Glee Club emblems that every member wears during performances lend an air of uniformity to the group.

We are sure that everyone who has heard the Glee Clubs sing will agree that their efforts are not in vain; and that this organization is indeed one that is necessary for a well-rounded school life.

The purpose of the Wranglers' Club is to promote debating ability and knowledge of parliamentary law among the members of the club and other students of Suffolk High School.

The club has been led this year by several outstanding Seniors. The office of president was filled by Raymond Gordon; Sylvia Schein served as a most capable vice-president; Jimmy Godwin was the treasurer; and Elizabeth Rawls held the position of secretary. Another office in the club this year was that of honorary vice-president given to Dickie Lipscomb as he was with us for only the first semester.

During the year several speakers gave readings or talks, thus enabling the members to profit from the knowledge of their undisputed talent.

One of the highlights of the Wranglers' Club year was the successful and most enjoyable Washington Ball. This annual event seemed to make the school year complete. Each member took part in the preparation and each student in the dancing.

One of the best qualities of a good citizen is that of good sportsmanship, a quality which is as desirable in every day life as it is on the athletic field. The organization of Suffolk High School stressing this quality is the Monogram Club, which by various means finds a way to make the spring sports self-supporting. This is the purpose of the club.

This year marks the rebirth of the Monogram Club. To become a member of this organization a boy must receive a large S for some sport or other activity.

The club gave the first dance of the fall season on October 13 after the football game with South Norfolk.

Nick Manos, a very able athlete, was elected president and Forrest Mallette was honored with the position of vice-president. There are twenty members of this club and all are a very fine specimen of young American manhood.

One of the most important organizations in Suffolk High School is the Junior Red Cross which works hand in hand with the Red Cross helping to execute its benevolent deeds.

The Junior Red Cross had a very full and interesting year under the guidance of Miss Selma Piland and with these officers: Jennie Lee Cross, president; Jacqueline Burton, vice-president; Maurine Synan, secretary; and Allie Grace, treasurer. They made many favors for each holiday for the service men in the Portsmouth Naval Hospital. Christmas boxes which were filled by the homerooms were sent to children in foreign lands. With the aid of the Home Economics Department, bedroom shoes and utility bags were completed. Led by Miss Gladys Yates, they sponsored a first-aid class. To open the Annual Roll Call they gave a play, "Counterpane Commandos," in assembly. After making covers for the Annual Red Cross report one afternoon, the Council enjoyed a chow-mein supper. Thus with this long list of accomplishments the Junior Red Cross closes its year.

Sitting—Dixon, Hancock, Schein, Vann, V. Nurney, Darden, Gobbel, Johnson, J. L. Cross, Burton, Alberts, M. Cross, Grace, Bell*

Dramatics is an interesting subject for study. The Playmakers has for its purpose, to create in the students of Suffolk High School an interest in and an appreciation of dramatics.

This organization has been led this year by Bobby Saunders, who was chosen president; Sylvia Schein, their vice-president; Jane Grant, secretary; and Jennie Lee Cross, treasurer.

The club has worked as a class in play-production, studying the methods of selecting a cast, setting and lighting a stage, doing the make-up, and selecting the costumes. After these studies the members enjoyed much fun, excitement, and thrilling satisfaction from watching two one-act plays stumble out from under awkward rehearsals on a bare stage to a creditable performance on a stage, set and lighted by the members of the club themselves. After many years of producing successful plays our school would not seem complete without this worthwhile organization.

GIRLS' SENIOR HI-Y CLUB

Third Row—Putnam, Kelley, Ward, Haynes, Miss Yates, N. Rawls, Jones, E. Rawls, N. Alberts

This is one of the clubs founded for the purpose of furthering the four Christian Standards, each member being chosen only if she fits these high qualifications.

These girls are always busy doing some charitable work. At Christmas the club provided for a needy child with articles of clothing and toys. Once a month they had a speaker who discussed some woman of the Bible. Another speaker during the month spoke to the girls on some vocation. Once a month the club attended Church services at various churches of the city along with the other Hi-Y clubs. One of the largest events of the year was the dance given by the Girls' Senior Hi-Y. Hard work was put into this, and it was very successful. They sponsored a Junior Staff Assistance course in connection with the Red Cross for girls of the junior and senior classes who had had typing.

This year the club had many outstanding officers. They were led by Mary Shep Alberts, the president. She was assisted by Mildred Cross, vice-president; Faye Bell, secretary; Margaret Hines, treasurer; and Anna Marie Mehalko, corresponding secretary. Under their leadership the club has had a very successful year.

Second Row—Godwin, Crocker, Mayo, Wesson, Aaron, Simpson, M. E. Cross, Tomko, Hines
Third Row—A. Taylor, Draper, Johnson, Featherstun, Miss Pruden, Jones, A. Cross, Urback, Goode*

Another of these clubs which was created for the younger students in the school is the Girls' Junior Hi-Y. Under the sponsorship of Miss Thelma Pruden much has been done toward the war effort and the betterment of our school. The main purpose of this club is to promote its platform which is based on four ideals—Clean Speech, Clean Sportsmanship, Clean Scholarship, and Clean Living. The members are chosen from the freshman and sophomore classes, and their officers for this year have been Judy Smith, president; Eads Urback, vice-president; Carolyn Jones, secretary; Anne Harrell, corresponding secretary; and Virginia Blair, treasurer. We have found these girls willing and able, at all times, to do what they are called upon to do. Not only have they promoted a better Christian spirit in our school, but they have also given generously to charity, helped support the Red Cross, sponsored a daily Bible Reading project, and many other things. Truly it is said, the Girls' Junior Hi-Y has proved itself to be one of the greatest assets to Suffolk High School.

BOYS' SENIOR HI-Y CLUB

Second Row—Mallette, Copeland, Bullock, Saunders, Manos, Williams

Third Row—Hobbs, Nurney, Rawles, Kirkpatrick, Causey, Jennings, Womack, Godwin

The Boys' Senior Hi-Y, a member of the Y.M.C.A., is made up of boys from the junior and senior classes. It teaches the four high ideals of all Hi-Y Clubs to these older students. Each member is selected on the grounds of these ideals.

To become a member each student must undergo an initiation, never to be forgotten by the applicant. To remain in the club the student must pass at least three accredited subjects.

Each year the club sponsors a Sadie Hawkins Dance. It is always co-ed and a riot in the true Yokum fashion. The club attends church once a month in a body with the other Hi-Y Clubs of the school. At the end of the year the surplus funds are given to a charitable institution.

Their president this year, Dickie Lipscomb, since he graduated in February, was replaced by Jack Bell. Raymond Gordon is secretary and treasurer of the club. The club is sponsored by Mr. C. W. Cockrell.

BOYS' JUNIOR HI-Y CLUB

The Boys' Junior Hi-Y Club is another of the four clubs in Suffolk High School that were started with the four C's—Clean Speech, Clean Sports, Clean Scholarship, and Clean Living—as their ideals, and “to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian Character” as their purpose.

The officers were elected in the first meeting of the year. Charles Tucker was elected president and Lewis Knowles assisted him as vice-president. Don Mallette and Clyde Green have been the secretary and treasurer respectively. Reverend Louis Haskell, rector of the Episcopal Church, is the adviser of the club. He led them throughout the year.

Once a month the club attended various churches of Suffolk with the other Hi-Y Clubs. They gave aid to charitable institutions with the money collected from the members.

The Hi-Y Clubs of our school are among the best we have because of their firm foundation and high ideals.

Third Row—Carr, Miss Marable, Acene Carter, V. Holland, M. L. Holland, E. Fowler

To carry domestic affairs in the school, homes, and community, the Home Economics Club exists. This organization has been led through a successful year under the guidance of Miss Elizabeth Marable. Club members are chosen from the pupils who show a special interest in the home economics field.

This club helps to preserve the ideals of home life, teaches students to work together in groups for the common good, teaches the members to set high personal standards of care and accomplishments, plans a program of community and state service, and develops initiative and leadership.

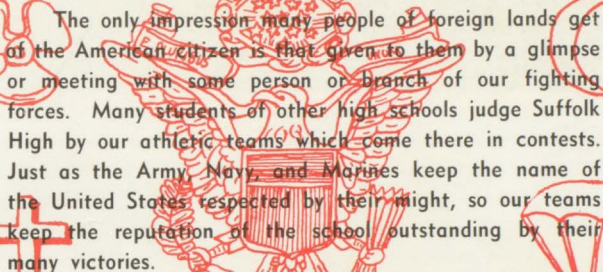

Their officers for this year have been Emma Carr, president; Violet Holland, vice-president; Acene Carter, treasurer; and Mary Lee Holland, secretary.

Many projects have been completed during the year for the Red Cross. Banquets, receptions, and teas were planned, cooked, and served by the members of the club to gain training for later use. Each year delegates are sent to the state organization of the Future Homemakers Club of Virginia with which the club is affiliated.

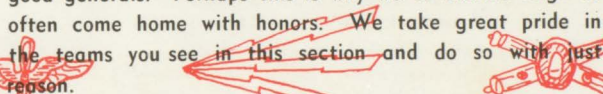

ATHLETICS

The fighting forces are a group ever present in the minds of every citizen. We at Suffolk High have several athletic teams which on a small scale do for our school what the fighting forces do for our country.

The only impression many people of foreign lands get of the American citizen is that given to them by a glimpse or meeting with some person or branch of our fighting forces. Many students of other high schools judge Suffolk High by our athletic teams which come there in contests. Just as the Army, Navy, and Marines keep the name of the United States respected by their might, so our teams keep the reputation of the school outstanding by their many victories.

No force, no matter how strong, is successful without good generals. Perhaps this is why we of Suffolk High so often come home with honors. We take great pride in the teams you see in this section and do so with just reason.

This year found the Suffolk High Red Raiders experiencing one of the most successful years in school history. This team, ably captained by two outstanding linemen, Jimmy Godwin and Nick Manos, will be long remembered.

The season opened with an impressive 20-0 win over the Kempsville Blue Devils played here at Peanut Park. Next week the powerful class "A" Maury Commodores eked out a 18-12 victory over the Raiders, but after this it was one smashing victory after another. Alexander Park withered under the Raider pressure, 40-6, and the onrushing Red Raiders whitewashed Norview 33-0. South Norfolk and Churchland felt the sting of the Raiders by scores of 36-0 and 33-0.

Then came that unfortunate scoreless tie with the Trinidads of Holy Trinity. The next week the Raiders came back strong to defeat an exceptionally powerful Cradock team 14-7, and in their final home stand they repulsed Oceana 25-0. In their only out of town contest the Raiders played their best game of the season against Morrison but lost 7-0.

Coaches of this remarkable team were Charles Cockrell and Lewis White. Ray Waterfield, Claude Eley, and George Caldwell were managers.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Standing—Rawls, Miss Pitman, Miss Bell, Dixon*

It's really getting to be an old time habit for the girls to get the District Class "B" Championship. For the second season in succession the girls have gone through the season undefeated, making it thirty-nine games over a period of two years without a defeat. The reason for this is the superb coaching and leadership of Miss Emily Pittman, ably assisted by Miss Marguerite Bell.

Jane Grant was again high scorer with 323 points to her credit. Second in the scoring column was Nan Taylor with 132. The girls' total points, 518, were twice as many as their opponents' 258. This big margin of points was due mainly to the outstanding guarding of Barbara Haynes, Evelyn Putnam, and Emma Carr.

This year the team was captained by Emma Carr and managed by Nancy Rawls.

Second Row—Rawles, D. Mallette, J. Annas, Ward, Williams, Butler, Crocker, Westnedge,

Despite the fact that the boys' basketball team did not win the District "B" crown, the season was outstanding for the fighting spirit displayed by the local quint in winning 16 out of 21 games.

Co-captains, G. S. Hobbs and Bob Brothers, together with Bobby Saunders, Harold Barrett, and Nick Manos bore the brunt of the Raider attack. Newcomers, Barney Annas, Forrest Mallette, and Jack Nurney, along with the veteran Jimmie Baines, supported the starting five.

Class "A" Maury was the only team to defeat the Raiders twice. Single defeats by Morrison, Norview, and South Norfolk cost the Raiders heavily.

This spirited team was coached by "Bunny" Cockrell and managed by Jimmie Godwin and George Caldwell.

Scoring honors of the season went to Hobbs with a total of 186 points in sixteen games. Brothers was second in the scoring column with 132.

CHEERLEADERS

Barney

Center—Grant*

The crowd jumps to its feet to watch their team make a final touchdown, or they fill the gymnasium with a yell that just about brings the roof down as their team makes the winning basket. Who is the team they are cheering on so? The Suffolk High team, of course. And who is leading the crowd in their cheering support of the team? Well, who else but the Suffolk High cheerleaders, decked in their traditional white outfits with the red "S"? These are the morale builders of the fighting forces of Suffolk High.

The cheering squad this year is larger than it has been for a long time. It is composed of nine members, five girls and four boys. There were two lettermen left from last year—Jane Grant and Annette Jones. The new ones on the squad are Catherine Callis, Sue Hines, Jackie Smith, Howard Sturgeon, Barney Annas, Jack Nurney, and Morrison Smither. It takes hard work and much practice to be a good cheerleader, so let's give our cheerleaders the credit which they so rightly deserve.

FEATURES

A picture of the life and activities at Washington would not be complete without mention of the social affairs, the leading citizens, and the little incidents of everyday life. Therefore we felt a story of our school life would be incomplete without the lighter side of our student life.

The first selection is an illustrated calendar of our school year including our dances and holidays. Next we present our outstanding Seniors, selected by the Senior Class as such for their excellence in various fields. The various personalities in our graduating class, being so definitely a part of us, could not be omitted. Then we have taken numerous scenes of our students in their school life and present them to you at this point. Our next feature is a parade of our "aged and experienced" Seniors. Our government is at this time all out for the war effort, and for this reason we believe it would be a serious omission to exclude the part our school has played in the war effort of our nation. This is our next article. Last we have the heroes of our school, the Seniors who would be with us this year but for having been called to serve their country and to preserve the type of government with which we have compared our school.

The last part of our book is the section of advertisements which is a very essential part of our volume. They correspond to the taxpayers of our country who support the government by their pecuniary aid. Just so these firms enable us to give you this book, which we hope you will find pleasing and entertaining.

FUTURE

OUTSTANDING

In any group there are a few individuals that stand out above the others. On these the task of leading the group rests. In the Senior Class of '45 we have these persons also. They are the students who have led the class in some particular field and have proved themselves worthy of the title, outstanding seniors

This year the class chose the following six students as the outstanding members of our class—Jimmy Godwin, president of the Student Senate; Margaret Hines, editor-in-

Our leaders mentioned, we must not forget the rest. No leader could be successful without a group which is ready to co-operate and willing to help behind him. Every member of our class is in reality an outstanding Senior.

SUFFOLK HIGH AT WAR

This year Suffolk High School has done much for the war effort. The students have donated their time, ability, and money as individuals, clubs, or classes toward this worthy objective.

The Bonds and Stamps Committee is the largest organization in the school set up for the sole purpose of promoting the sale of bonds and stamps. A picture is presented by this committee every week in assembly to the homeroom with the largest percentage of sales. Posters in the halls and rooms help to advertise the fact that every dime helps. Through the earnest work of this committee, Suffolk High School won the Schools-at-War flag, presented by the Virginia War Bonds Division to schools maintaining an average of ninety per cent of students buying stamps during the month.

There is also a War Activities Committee which is ready to participate with the school and community in any drive pertaining to the war effort. The main duty, however, of this group is to send Peanut Pickers to the alumni boys in service, no matter where they may be.

Also the math classes have been stepped up to enable the students to take advanced courses to aid them in future military training. To those boys interested in aviation a class of pre-flight has been taught. Here they learn the fundamentals of flying in regard to weather, identification, structure of planes, aerodynamics, and navigation. In the industrial arts work-shop the boys take classes in pre-induction, learning things that will be very useful to them in the armed forces.

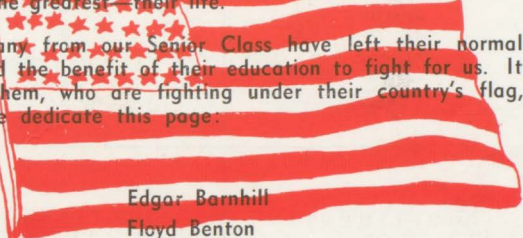

Before the Christmas holidays the school cooperated with the city merchants by allowing the students to go to school only half a day and to work the other half. This plan proved highly satisfactory to all concerned.

All students and faculty have worked together untiringly with these phases of the war effort.

Senior Class Roll of Honor

At present the world is locked in bitter conflict over the question of the rights of man. The war will decide whether tyranny or democracy rules the world. Many have left their homes to join in this conflict. They are fighting for our rights, so that we will have our freedom. To these we shall always be indebted. Their sacrifice is very often the greatest of their life.

Many from our Senior Class have left their normal life and the benefit of their education to fight for us. It is to them, who are fighting under their country's flag, that we dedicate this page:

TO THE CLASS OF '45

These are historic and revolutionary times in which you live. You graduate from school in a period in which the world is undergoing great change.

The world into which you enter is entirely unlike the world of 1941 in which you entered school. It will never be the same as it was then. It will never return, but go forward constantly.

As your formal education ends, to keep abreast of the world news and the news of Suffolk and vicinity make a habit of reading your local daily newspaper, the

Dear Sam,

I have enjoyed being in school with you this past year. Although we live miles and miles away I see very little of you. But I guess you are well occupied with Rev. Charles Tucker. I had a very good time at your dance and all other good times etc. But I wish to a young girl. Have a good time with Charles. I will see more of you.

Sometimes it is the nature of a craft to create an unbreakable tie between itself and the worker in that field, a heart attachment equal to lifetime devotion. One familiar example is PRINTING. Once editor, once compositor, or pressman catches the spirit of the shop, the spell is seldom broken. Like the odor of a camp fire, or a whiff of salt air, the beloved tang of printer's ink, symbolical of a great profession, gets into your heart and soul. School Annuals, Magazines, Newspapers and Special Printing, all smack of it. It is an invisible link that binds all intelligence together. It is the stimulus for creation in business or romance. This craftsmanship, this devotion to service and alertness to business needs, has nourished and developed an enormous industrial vitality, and whichever way the course of the future runs, the printer will always find himself able to adapt his helpfulness to new opportunity.

Years of experience have taught us! Printing Pays Us Only When It Pays You!
